

Dr Mariam Razzaq

Lecturer, FCPS-II Resident

Dr Mariam Razzaq graduated from Fatima Memorial Medical and Dental College. She joined the Department of Community Medicine as a post graduate trainee and lecturer.

She is a young fellow with visionary approach to transform the health care system and its delivery in the country. She has attended multiple workshops and conferences in collaboration with donor agencies. She also has successfully completed the Hospital Preparedness for Emergencies (HOPE) Regional Course and plans to continue her career in disaster management and its mitigation. She is also a keen learner and exhibit excellent managerial skills.